How it all feels...

What does this mean?

- 01. New buying behaviors (and buyers) mix with old habits
- 02. Technology more important than ever
- 03. Access to data means good business decisions

Business management

Getting your back of the house in order

Good business management:

When times are hard, prepare for when times are easy. When times are easy, prepare for when times are hard.

Ability to monitor business

- What does my cashflow look like?
- What should I be projecting / forecasting for sales?
- Do I have enough inventory & packaging on hand to meet demand?
- What are my COGS?
- Am I paying too much for certain supplies?
- How do I price my product correctly?
- Which products are performing well and which aren't?
- How do I stay compliant with taxes & legislature? (excise taxes, payroll taxes, TTB reporting, Report on Wine Premises Operations etc.)

Inventory Management:

Out of spreadsheets & whiteboards

- Track & view your facility & inventory in real time
- Transfers from tank to tank or to storage & packaging
- Monitor finished goods inventory to confidently fulfill orders
- Track what's in your barrels & tanks
- Set reorder points so you don't run out (e.g. packaging)

Real time inventory tracking

Production:

Work smarter, not harder

- Plan your processes in advance or execute on the go
- Communicate better with digital work orders & tracking
- Keep track of historical processes to maintain high quality product
- Scale your business (esp with more employees)

“As soon as you bring in other people and delegate, you need a trackable system for record keeping. Verbal or paper records can lead to discrepancies, inaccuracies and a lack of communication.

Keith Bishop, Owner, Bishop's Orchards Winery

Tracing your lots

- In case of a recall, easily find the affected batches and where/when they were distributed
- Leverage tracking to maintain certifications
- Ensure compliance with traceability laws
- Use lot codes to determine which finished goods should be shipped to customers first
- Easily associate lot codes with packaged goods based on the packaging run to help determine "best by" dates

Accounting:

Calculating your costs

COGS visibility

Landed costs

- Price of goods
- Packaging costs
- Shipment costs
- Insurance fees
- Custom duties
- Other costs

Why:

- Identify patterns & spot points of inefficiencies
- Understand your business' & products' profitability
- Make pricing & sales strategy decisions
- Tax & compliance implications

Leveraging integrations

Inventory & business management system

Accounting system

Invoice --> inventory depleted automatically

Journal entry recording costs on right account & invoice

Transfer inventory to tax paid location (e.g. tasting room)

Journal entry recording wholesale vs. retail account

Loss/spoilage/product destruction recorded

Journal entry marking losses

Accounting integration

- 01. Saves 15-20 hours per month
- 02. Reduces double-entry & helps you scale
- 03. Streamlines communication between departments
- 04. Able to track true cost of products in real time
- 05. Collects compliance data for tax reporting

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The reporting period for this form must be monthly, except that proprietors who qualify under the exception stated in 27 CFR 24.300(g)(2) may file this form on a quarterly or calendar year basis unless required to file monthly by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB). A proprietor who files monthly reports but does not expect any reportable operations in a subsequent month or months may indicate in Part X that no monthly reports will be filed until a reportable operation occurs. (§ 24.300(g)(1)).

2. Prepare this form in duplicate and file it by the fifteenth day after the end of the report period (month, quarter, or year). Keep the copy on your bonded wine premises for inspection by TTB officers. Send the original to TTB at this address: Director, National Revenue Center, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, 550 Main St, Ste 8002, Cincinnati, OH 45202-9215.

3. Explain any unusual operations in Part X.

4. The quantities "on hand end" will ordinarily be "book inventory" figures, that is the quantity required to balance each summary. Use the "on hand end" from your report for the previous period as the "on hand beginning" of the current report. On reports for any period when you take a physical inventory, report the difference as losses for bulk wine and shortages for bottled wine, or as gains, as the case may be.

5. If the quantity of wine previously reported on TTB F 5120.17 is affected by adjustments made on a tax return, TTB F 5000.24, adjust the current TTB F 5120.17 in Section A (and Section B, if bottled wine is involved). Explain the entries in Part X.

25. Write-in Entry. See Attachment

- Create reports faster
- Save hours every quarter
- Ensure accuracy & stay compliant
- Audit trail in case of excise tax audit

Sales management:

Improve communication

- Identify patterns, velocity of sales by product, profitability of each product & forecast future sales orders
- Scaling your team – track & assign team activities
- Create sales orders & invoice on the go
- Create better routing for your distribution team & manage deliveries
- Reserve items for allocations to ensure orders are fulfilled

The tech advantage

Spreadsheets/whiteboards/ notebooks

- Prone to human error
- Broken links & data
- Easily lost/erased
- Hard to connect the dots

Software technology

- Reduces human error
- Open communication
- Real time
- Proactive decision making
- Automation = efficiencies
- Traceability
